BAND COMMITTEE MEMBER NEEDED

The Board of Selectmen of the Town of Mattapoisett will be very happy to accept applications of anyone who is interested in becoming a member of a committee to act in an advisory capacity to the Town Band. The Town is going to need a new Band Stand in the very near future, as the one we have now is pretty well worn out. This would be one of the things to be resolved along with several other matters.

Reconsider Portables?

BUILDING COMMITTEE SAYS PORTABLE CLASSROOMS NOT IN BEST INTEREST

At a meeting of the Rochester Building School Committee on Thursday, July 31, 1969, it was unanimously voted to notify the members of the Old Rochester Regional School District that the building of the 7 portable classrooms are not in the best interest of the region or of Rochester.

In our opinion these portable classrooms are at the very best an expensive ($165,000.00) and temporary (3 years) solution. By 1972 another decision will have to be made to either return grades 7 and 8 to the local towns, add a permanent addition to the high school or go on a double or overlapping schedule.

Now you can wipe out insects as you fertilize your lawn

All you do is spread Scotts COPE PLUS on your lawn. It clears out 19 different kinds of lawn insects at the same time it full-fertilizes your lawn to greener beauty. Gets rid of even the toughies like sod webworms, chinchbugs, ants and beetle grubs.

Results are amazing — as insects disappear your fertilized grass grows greener, thicker, sturdier. So if you'd like to make insects stop where your lawn begins, spread a bag of dual-action COPE PLUS. This weekend would be fine.

It's true that last October's open school committee meeting indicated a unanimous expression for temporary construction. At that time, however, return of grades 7 and 8 to the local towns with attendant reduction in regional growth rate was never presented nor discussed.

The regional committee has voted to purchase the seven temporary classrooms and is also seriously considering returning grades 7 and 8 to the towns by 1972. These two conditions leave a high school with 400 empty seats in that year. This means that better than 1/3 of the high school would be vacant.

Instead, if we accept a 7th and 8 grade overlapping schedule until the region makes a decision to either construct permanent classrooms or return grades 7 and 8 to the local towns, it would appear that we would save the $165,000.00 in capital outlay plus we would not have on our hands seven ineffective, expensive and temporary buildings.

For the reasons stated above we specifically ask the Rochester members of the Old Rochester Regional School Committee to ask that committee to reconsider their vote on these temporary classrooms, and if you agree, call your regional representative at once. Ask him to reconsider plans for constructing the temporary classrooms.

THE GREAT RIVER RACE

It is hard to believe that the gentle 10-foot stream flowing from northern Minnesota is the same river as the swift current that sometimes becomes 8 miles wide and 60 feet deep before it pours into the Gulf. But they are both the mighty Mississippi.

Its majestic waters are fed by more than 250 rivers and its history, by even more powerful currents: the great cities on its banks, a language and a music all its own, the tales of Mark Twain, and the men who plied its fast waters in mighty boats.

One of the river's most legendary stories, according to the famous marine archives of The Atlantic Mutual Insurance Company, is the fabled race of the "Natchez" and the "Rob't E. Lee."

Two of the old river's most fabulous characters were Captain Thomas P. Leathers, whose "Natchez" steamboats had been for years the glory of New Orleans, and Captain John Cannon who built the gaudy and speedy "Rob't E. Lee."

The two proud competitors tried for weeks to out-dazzle each other. Finally, they agreed to a race up the river to St. Louis. The news quickly flashed out to the world and excited bets were placed as far away as London and Paris.

On the evening of June 30, 1870, the "Natchez" and the "Rob't E. Lee" pulled out. Foam soon flew from the bows. Passengers and crews yelled themselves hoarse. Multitudes waved and shouted from the levee.

The "Natchez" and the "Lee" coursed the Mississippi through fog, whirlpools and treacherous waters. Steam plumed from their escape pipes and black smoke billowed behind them as the two boats strained forward until their every timber shook.

As reported in Atlantic's Marine Library, the "Lee" was ahead from the start, but the "Natchez" hung on. They passed Memphis 63 minutes apart. At Cairo, the "Lee" was leading by 70 minutes, but then the "Natchez" ran into fog — and engine trouble.

On the morning of July 4 the "Rob't E. Lee" steamed into St. Louis, only 3 days, 18 hours and 14 minutes out of New Orleans, a record that has to this day never been equaled. Six and a half hours later the "Natchez" churned in, a puffing but glorious loser.

Today, the Mississippi is still a great artery of commerce, and if you travel it at night, they say you can still hear the thrashing paddles of the "Natchez" and the "Lee."

fire with only minor searing to the store which was only a couple of feet from the truck. The truck cab was completely burned out.

Couples Club

SUCCESSFUL HAM & BEAN SUPPER

A very successful ham and bean supper was served Saturday evening at the Mattapoisett Congregational Church parish hall by the Couples Club, followed by a well attended square dance at the town wharf.

Assisting the general chairmen, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blackburn, were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Arral, tickets; Mr. and Mrs. William MacLean, publicity; Mr. and Mrs. George Hampton, greeters.

Working in the kitchen preparing the food in the afternoon and setting up the hall were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Randall, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blackburn, the Rev. Donald Finley, Mesdames Bruce Rocha, William MacLean, Kenneth Hirons and Harry Downing, Jr.

Mrs. John Layport and Mrs. Nathan Flood prepared the breads and Mrs. Norman Atkinson and Mrs. Roger Morris were in charge of the coffee.

Beans were baked by Mrs. Randall's committee comprised of Mrs. Kenneth Hirons, Mrs. Barney Helfand, Mrs. James Harris, Mrs. Norman Atkinson and Mrs. Richard Whalon.

Author of books on painting, he has lived his philosophy in his profession as a conscientious realist. His directness and interpretation stresses truth in vision. Is has been said, "his brush knows no compromise with honesty".

Helen Sawyer was born in Washington, D.C. and studied at the National Academy of Design and with Charles Hawthorne. Like her husband, she too is an Academician of the National Academy of Design. She was president of the Florida Artists Group and is a member of the National Arts Club, the Sarasota Art Association and the Provincetown Art Association. Helen Sawyer has had one-man shows at the Milch Galleries and the Grand Central Galleries in New York City; in Louisville at the Speed Museum and Clearwater, Miami and Winter Park, Florida.

Her work has an ethereal quality and her canvases offer lyrical enchantment. She has not confined her expression to one medium, but has achieved a mastery in oil, watercolor and lithograph. One might say her "landscapes live and her portraits have definite personalities".

The Gallery welcomes these two famous people and invites the public to view the exhibit at the Gallery on Main Street from Saturday, August 2nd, thru August 23rd. Hours are from 1 to 5 P.M. Tuesday thru Sunday.

Grange Fair Aug. 23

On the Mattapoisett Grange Fair here are a few opening rules. Anyone wishing to exhibit may get one of the lists from Mr. Otto Kellish or Mrs. Mildred LeBaron later in the week. First on the list tells you that exhibits will be received from 8 A.M. to 11:30 A.M. All entries must be in place 1/2 hour before judging starts at 11:30 A.M. when the main hall will be closed until after the judging which will be approximately 1 P.M.

There is such a large list of entries one can enter in the Fair that getting a premium list is important for an exhibitor to have. Get them in early with much thought in placing them for display as well as value. The score card reads - quality, 50%; arrangement, 30%; utility value, 10%; and number of kinds, 10%.

In making your plans for Saturday, August 23rd, don't forget the home cooked supper of beans, salads, ham, rolls, coffee and desserts that will be served in the dining hall at 6 P.M., followed by the auction of flowers, vegetables, merchants' donations, gifts, etc.

A flower cart will have plenty of cut flowers and plants for sale. The apron booth will offer men's barbecue aprons and chef's hats and clothespin aprons in addition to regular aprons of every style. The handcrafts' booth will have, among other things, shell craft, embroidery, Currier and Ives plaques and even some still lifes in oil. A few of the items at the children's booth will be play aprons, marble bags, bean bags, hand puppets, stuffed animals, knitted baby sets, baby clothes and Raggedy Ann wastebaskets - a perfect place to pick up birthday and Christmas gifts. on Marine Science, Engineering and Resources, the new super-agency--dubbed NOAA, for National Oceanic and Atmospheric Agency--would be made up of six government bureaus now scattered among a number of other departments.

These are the Coast Guard, the U. S. Environmental Science Services Administration (ESSA), the Bureau of Commercial Fisheries, the Bureau of Sports Fisheries and Wildlife, the Corps of Engineers Lake Survey, and the National Oceanographic Data Center.

In another innovation, the Keith bill would establish a fifteen member blue-ribbon advisory council, made up of leaders in science, industry and education, to advise the NOAA agency on goals and coordinate with private efforts.

"Exploration of our 'inner space'--our oceans and atmosphere--promise to bring far more direct benefits to our people than exploring outer space," said Keith in announcing his co-sponsorship of the bill. "Until now this effort has been fragmented, with many different agencies involved and only sporadic and partial coordination of effort. What we need, as the Commission report says, is 'a single operating agency having authority and capability commensurate with the scope and urgency of the national ocean program'".

Such a unified agency, the Congressman went on, would be a logical base on which to build the broad national effort in oceanography that he believes is essential.

"The ocean's potential for food production, for mining, for habitation and for a multitude of other purposes is enormous--and almost totally untapped. With a coordinated national effort, working in conjunction with the sizeable civilian sector in this field, we can begin to exploit this largely untapped resource on a large scale."

The new agency would encompass some 55,000 employees and a total of 320 vessels, now associated with the Coast Guard, ESSA, and the BCF. Current appropriations for the separate agencies that would be united under NOAA amount to $773 million.

"The establishment of NOAA," said the Congressman, "is a vital step in giving oceanography the place it deserves in our set of national priorities."

Establishment of such an agency, too, can be a logical first step toward joint efforts in exploring and developing the resources of international waters. Some international efforts have been made in this direction, but much more can and should be done, and I see NOAA as a prime vehicle for participating in such future cooperative efforts.

A HOME AT LAST

The town's 1821 hand-pumper, one of the oldest fire engines in the United States; the 1900 two-horse watering wagon, for many years used to sprinkle the dusty, pre-blacktop village streets on dry summer days; and the old horse-drawn sidewalk snowplow have now found a permanent home. The Selectmen recently gave them to the Historical Society to be preserved in the Carriage House Museum with loving care and the opportunity to make many new friends.
